RULES OF
The J. Herman Bosler Memorial Library.

CARLISLE, PENNA.

JANUARY 30, 1900.

---

LIBRARY HOURS.

1. The Library shall be open daily, except on Sundays, New Year's day, Washington's birthday, Memorial day, the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving day and Christmas, as follows: From October 1 to May 31 inclusive, from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m.; during the remaining four months of the year, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m.

During the foregoing hours all persons above the age of twelve years, of cleanly habits and good reputation, shall have the free use, in the building, of all the books and magazines therein.

HOME USE OF BOOKS.

2. Any permanent resident of Carlisle or vicinity may take out books for home use, upon the approval of his application to do so by the Book Committee, and the annual payment of one dollar to the Librarian.

3. Any temporary resident may take out books for home use, upon the approval of his application to do so by the Book Committee, and the monthly payment of twenty-five cents to the Librarian.

ISSUE AND RETURN OF BOOKS.

4. Two books may be taken out by a borrower at the same time, provided they shall not both be fiction. If a work of fiction is published in two volumes, however, both volumes may be taken out at one time, but they will be considered to be two books.

5. Books may be retained for two weeks, unless otherwise labeled, and, except recent works of fiction, may be renewed for a similar period. Recent works of fiction may not be renewed. In computing time, the date of issue will not be counted, nor will the last day be counted if the Library is closed on that day.

6. Magazines, except those for the current month, may be taken out for home use, one or more numbers of the same magazine being issued instead of one book, and to be retained seven days only.

7. A subscriber may have a book reserved for twenty-four hours, and notice sent by mail, on deposit of one cent for postal card.

8. Reference books and magazines for the current month may not be taken out of the building.

FINES AND PENALTIES.

9. A fine of two cents a day, including Sundays and holidays, will be charged on each book retained longer than the rules permit. Books overdue more than one week will be sent for, by messenger, at the expense of the borrower.

10. Injuries to books, beyond reasonable wear, shall be made good by the borrower. If one volume of a set is lost, the loser will be held responsible for the value of the set, unless the lost volume be replaced to the satisfaction of the Book Committee. A book overdue more than one month will be considered lost.

11. Any one taking a book from the building without having it duly charged, shall forfeit all right to the privileges of the Library.

12. No person shall draw a book for home use whilst he is indebted for fines or damages.

CONDUCT AND ORDER.

13. Conversation and conduct inconsistent with quiet and order, and the use of tobacco in any form, are forbidden in the building.

14. Dogs will not be allowed on the premises.

15. No one will be admitted back of the delivery desk without a permit from the Librarian.

16. Writing in books or magazines, and turning down the leaves, are forbidden.

CATALOGUE AND BOOK-LISTS.

17. The card catalogue, in which all books received to date are indexed alphabetically under author, title and subject, will be open for the use of the public.

Book-lists will be accessible to readers in the building, or may be purchased for fifteen cents a copy and taken away.
